

Bio: MAJ Connie Thomas, MD

MAJ Connie Thomas was a Distinguished Military Graduate from Bucknell University ROTC in Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, where she majored in Biology and Sociology with a minor in Classics. She was granted an educational delay from commissioning in the U.S. Army in order to complete her medical degree at the Uniformed University of the Health Sciences (USUHS) in Bethesda, MD. She completed her residency in Psychiatry at Walter Reed Army Medical Center (WRNMMC) in Bethesda, MD in 2016. Upon graduating from residency, she became the Officer in Charge and Medical Director at the California Medical Detachment at the Presidio of Monterey in California. In 2017, she deployed with the 254th Medical Detachment Combat and Operational Stress Control (COSC). During this operational assignment, she served as the Officer in Charge of outpatient behavioral health care in Kuwait and Officer in Charge of behavioral health care in Erbil, Iraq. Following her deployment, she served as the the division psychiatrist for the 7th Infantry Division at Joint Base Lewis-McChord in Washington from 2018 to 2021. She will complete her Sleep Medicine Fellowship at WRNMMC in the summer of 2022 and will be taking over as the Director for the Behavioral Biology Branch Walter Reed Army Institute of Research. She is an as assistant faculty for the USUHS Department of Psychiatry Advisory Board. She has had the honor to serve as Membership Chair, Secretary, and Vice President of SUSP.